Main Ministry Objectives

- Serve as a collaborator, partner, encourager, and co-leader with PRCC's other youth minister. Develop a working relationship based on mutual trust and respect, understanding and appreciating each other's gifts and talents.
- Spend quality time with students so that you have the right to have a powerful conversation and share the truth of Jesus. Enter the world of the families of PRCC. Find areas that are important to them, and strive to bring fun, adventure, friendship, inclusiveness. In spending quality time with students, you earn the right to have powerful conversations and share the truth of Jesus.
- Attend extra-curricular activities, lunches, focusing on boys in the youth ministry.
- Work with the children's ministry to collaborate on occasional programs, events, and activities for these two groups. We operate with a NextGen model, aiming to provide seamless ministry for our kids from cradle to cap and gown. We can describe this exciting model more with our candidates.
- Promote upcoming events and document past events for social media posts.

- Participate in PRCC classes, events and programs as a sponsor with the goal of growing relationships and connections across various age groups throughout the church body.

- Youth ministry requires some consistent office hours, but it also demands that you be at the students' activities as well. We will work with you to select some consistent times in the office, but we recognize some of your work hours will be after 5 pm. We would expect 40 hours of work each week.
- Stay aware of comp time you accrue and coordinate that with the appropriate staff.
- Respond to incoming communication (texts, emails, etc.) within one business day.
